October Month of the Holy Rosary

30th Sunday MASS 7/ Creed 12 Sunday P.155 Eucharistic Prayer 3 (p27)

Hymns: 644, 25, 658, 354, 529

My dear people we can all boast, perhaps only to ourselves about the good things we do, and how better I am than others. But it takes a big heart to look beyond the ego, to see that we would be nothing without God's grace and presence in our lives, and like the poor sinner in today's Gospel to cry out, "Lord, be merciful to me a sinner!" Looking beyond ourselves is important for personal growth, remembering others and supporting those in need are all wonderful Christian virtues.

November starts on Friday (incredible where did the year go to?), and November is the month of the Holy Souls, we remember our loved ones through our Masses and prayers, praying for them and asking them to pray for us. There are envelopes at the back of the Church like last year for you to list your loved ones that you would commend to the Lord and who will be remembered in all our November Masses: the box of remembrance for your list will be on the Altar. In November we also remember those who have died in service of our Country, I have asked the local British Legion to provide us with poppies for the back of Church, least we forget!

It is also good to remember those who work on the Missions, and next Sunday Fr. Patrick O'Beirne from the Columban Missionaries will be with us to help raise awareness of our missionary vocation, to encourage us to be more involved in the missionary work of the Church, to offer us thanks for our support, to seek greater support of their mission magazine, "The Far East," and to seek our financial support through a collection. So be generous in your praying, in your listening and support.

Finally a small task, look around you today at Mass, or around the street where you live pick out a stranger, and before the end of October say a decade or if you can manage it a rosary for them. It's good to share in prayer! God Bless mjk
