Confessions before hand

Next Sunday is Mother's Day, and so the children are planning something special for our 10am Mass, make sure you come, and remember here at St. Bernard's we celebrate Lady Day, so all our lovely women are remembered and treasured on that day.

Just a note that if you are down for a ministry of service during our Liturgies, please only do one, sometimes on the list you be down for two different ones, choose one and ask someone else to do the other. When coming down to the altar, there is no need to bow to the priest, rather to altar.

If you can help with refreshments on Thursday which will be in the school hall, please contact Bernadette Moorhouse. The school play ground will be open for parking on Thursday evening.

The Bishop has appointed Fr. Bill Foley to be the new Parish Priest of St. Ambrose, we wish him well, and thank all the priests who have covered over the months. God Bless mjk.
