Words of encouragement: Ephesians 4:29-32: Guard against foul talk; let your words be for the improvement of others, as occasion offers, and do good to your listeners, otherwise you will only be grieving the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

June: Month of The Sacred Heart

The Eucharist ☐ the Body and Blood of Christ ☐ is a mystery with so many layers and a depth that takes more than a lifetime to penetrate. It is not just a ☐thing☐ that we receive ☐ however reverently ☐ it is a person, a relationship, a belonging and a transformation that we consume, that becomes part of us: ☐Receive what you are ☐ the Body of Christ☐. The readings invite us to reflect on how our celebration of the Eucharist brings Christ's words to our reality: ☐☐who eats my flesh and drink my blood lives in me and I live in him.☐ The people of the Old Testament had God living in their midst, walking with them on their journey, feeding and nourishing them with the gift of manna from heaven. Jesus walks with us, not looking on from afar, journeying ☐in communion☐ with us ☐ living within us, as we eat and drink the gifts he extends from the Last Supper. And as Saint Paul reminds us, our communion with the One Christ is also a communion with each other ☐ God lives in us as the Church, as we become His Body.

This week we pray for the parishioners of Our Lady of Hope, Salford, for Canon Michael Cooke, their parish priest, and for Fr. Mark Paver, for their parish primary school, for Fr. Dominic Alih and the chaplaincy to the Salford Royal Hospital and for the work of the Mill Hill Missionaries. May the Eucharist be the source and summit of their parish life.

Pope Francis Tweet: "I sincerely appreciate the prayers and numerous expressions of closeness and affection received in the past few days. I am praying for everyone, especially those who suffer. I ask you to keep me in your prayers."

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS for June: We pray that international community may commit in a concrete way to ensuring the abolition of torture and guarantee support to victims and their families
