UPDATE: Thank you to those who sent me cards and gifts for my 70th Birthday it was overwhelming and very kind of you. I am very frustrated as I write this as I am still testing positive for Covid and I was so looking forward to Holy Week with you. I am very grateful to Fr Stamp who has been brilliant in so many ways but especially with the volume of Confessions he has had to cope with this week! I would also like to share with you some good news I received the other week, the cancer that took up residence above my right eye has completely gone which was pleasing to hear, hopefully continued treatment will do the same to the rest. Thank you for your continued prayers and support. mjk
