STAY WITH US ON OUR JOURNEY

14th Sunday p103

MASS 7/ Creed 11;

Eucharistic Prayer 2(24)

A prophet's job is to open people's eyes to the reality of their situation - pointing out to them the things they would rather forget or ignore. A prophet is a sort of "national conscience", always awake to situations of injustice and always speaking out about them. A prophet is commissioned to do this by God, who sends the prophet on his mission. Jesus is just such a prophet - teaching and preaching about the Kingdom of God and the best way to live. Despite the welcome his message has received elsewhere, when he comes to his hometown he is faced with rejection -such that "he was amazed at their lack of faith." It is curious is that they seem to accept his wisdom, and his miracles, but because he grew up among them they cannot accept him as a teacher from God. We should remember that it is often hardest to stand up for the truth among those who know us well.

Sea Sunday TODAY -8th July. There will be a retiring collection to support the Apostleship of the Sea.

As part of our diocesan journey with Hope in the Future, we pray the parish of St Margaret Mary's, New Moston with Fr Starkie and the Manchester Ordinariate Mission. We pray for the parish of St. Patrick, Collyhurst, and for Fr. Jim Clarke. We pray for the Presentation Sisters, the sisters of Evron and the brothers Missionaries of Charity and for the primary schools of those parishes. May God guide and inspire their missionary efforts.

Pope Francis Tweet: When we are firmly united to the God who loves and sustains us, we are able to withstand all life's difficulties and challenges.
