16th Sunday of Ordinary time Mass sheets

July month of the Precious Blood

Let them both grow till the harvest

There is no room in a good field for weeds and rubbish: so in the Kingdom of Heaven, there is no room for 'all things that provoke offences, and all who do evil'. They must be got rid of, for the sake of the good wheat, for the sake of the good subjects of the kingdom. But this weeding out will not take place until harvest time - in case one piece of good wheat is destroyed with the weeds. This shows the mercy of God: everyone has chance after chance to prove that they are wheat, not darnel; there are no quick judgements in the kingdom of heaven, and things are never as black and white as we think. Only at the end of time will evil stand out clearly, so that it can be disposed of, and only the Son of Man can judge.

We pray for the people of the parish of St. Kentigern, Fallowfield and English Martyrs, Whalley Range with Canon Michael Cleary, their parish priest, for its parish primary school and St. Bede's College.

Pope Francis Tweet: "Jesus says to His disciples: "Whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me" (Mt 10:38). There is no true love without the cross, without a personal price to pay. When borne with Jesus, the cross is not scary because He's always at our side to help us."

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS for July: We pray that today's families may be accompanied with love, respect and guidance

You are welcome to attend weekday Mass and the Holy Hour on Thursday, with the same conditions of attendance as weekend.

Keep up to date on the website with the Parish Pump and Sacristy Chatter.

School closed on Friday, and the next few days will see the final closing down ready for September. Our thanks go to all the staff who in these very difficult times have gone beyond the call of duty to help provide education and formation for our children, they have had to adjust and reorganise, form bubbles, be ingenious and caring. Such achievement comes about by goodwill and fine leadership, and for this we thank Mrs Fiona McGuire who retires as School closes. It should not be underestimated how much she has achieved in turning our school around; in the darkest days she held her ground and when failure seemed imminent she achieved the impossible, which won her many plaudits from those who worked alongside her both Governors and Staff alike and the City Council. The help given to many families, the food parcels delivered, the vouchers she fought for, and the help with home schooling that took place are all part of an indelible legacy. We will miss her and her gentle faith example always present at our Sunday Mass, and we wish her a very happy retirement and every blessing for the future. Thank you Fiona. mjk

I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

We hope to restart Baptisms in the next few weeks. We will only baptize one child at a time unless there is a sibling. Attendance is restricted to the candidate, parents and God parents of which there should be no more than two. The Baptism party in total can be no more than thirty people and strict social distancing rules must be followed.

For the foreseeable future a shawl will not be needed. If you have had a Baptism postponed you should now contact Annie or Janice using the Parish website on: baptismsternards@gmail.com to secure a new date; if you wish to arrange a Baptism then contact as above. We have 13 outstanding Baptisms and we hope to arrange them over the summer months. Arrangements for social distancing at St Bernard's can be found on the web site.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: next Saturday after the 12 Noon Mass there will be an opportunity to go to Confession. After Mass I will go into the Confessional, you will find that you will need to remain standing, as the kneeler and chair will have been taken away to help maintain social distancing. Nearby there will be wipes so that after Confession you can clean the door handles, for the next person to enter. It may be that a number of people may be waiting, so please keep that in mind as you come to receive the Sacrament. Beforehand remember to keep to our social distance guidelines and spend time examining your conscience, and be as crisp as possible when sharing in the confessional, as others who have missed the Sacrament like you will be waiting. May the Lord give you the forgiveness, grace and love that only he can give.
