19th Sunday of Ordinary time Mass sheets August month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Woman, you have great faith

Today is one of those occasions when, even though the second reading is not chosen to correspond to the theme of the Gospel and first reading, it does in fact fit very well. Indeed, much of the letter to the Romans is explained in this Sunday's Liturgy of the Word: the whole theme is summed up in this: the Messiah came first of all to the people of Israel, to whom the promises were made in the past - but it could not remain there. The good news had to be taken to the ends of the earth, so that all peoples, indeed the whole of creation could welcome the Messiah and take a place in the Kingdom of God. All nations are welcome on God's holy mountain: □Let all the peoples praise you, O God!□

We pray for the people of the parish of St. Mary and St. John Fisher, Denton, and for Fr. Peter Kinsella, their parish priest, for their parish primary schools and for St. Thomas More High School

Pope Francis Tweet: " Men and women who pray know that hope is stronger than discouragement. They believe that love is more powerful than death, and that love will surely triumph one day, even if it be in times and ways we do not know."

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS for August: We pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.

You are welcome to attend weekday Mass and the Holy Hour on Thursday, with the same conditions of attendance as weekend.

Keep up to date on the website with the Parish Pump and Sacristy Chatter.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation: Saturdays after the 12 Noon Mass there will be an opportunity to go to Confession. You will find that you will need to remain standing, as the kneeler and chair will have been taken away to help maintain social distancing. Nearby there will be wipes so that after Confession you can clean the door handles, for the next person to enter confessional.

CAFOD: In poor countries where people live hand-to-mouth the virus is extra difficult to cope with as there is little help from governments, no chance of social distancing & poor access to water. CAFOD, through the Disaster Emergency Committee is doing its best. If you are able to help please go to www.cafod.org.uk/coronavirusappeal or put a cheque/cash in an envelope marked CAFOD Emergency & put through the presbytery door. Visit CAFOD's website & see the Summer of Hope for ideas on how to transform life in lockdown. THANK YOU for all you do.

I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit

If you have had a Baptism postponed you should now contact Annie or Janice using the Parish website on: baptismstbernards@gmail.com to secure a new date; if you wish to arrange a Baptism then contact as above. Arrangements for social distancing at St Bernard's can be found on the web site.

"The most deadly poison of our times is indifference. And this happens, although the praise of God should know no limits. Let us strive, therefore, to praise Him to the greatest extent of our powers."....."That night, I asked the Mother of God what was to become of me, a Child of Faith. Then she came to me holding two crowns, one white, the other red. She asked me if I was willing to accept either of these crowns. The white one meant that I should persevere in purity and the red that I should become a martyr. I said that I would accept them both." St Maximilian Mary Kolbe
