From Blessed John Henry Newman: "A cloud of incense was rising on high; the people suddenly all bowed low; what could it mean? The truth flashed on him, fearfully yet sweetly; it was the Blessed Sacrament - it was the Lord Incarnate who was on the altar, who had come to visit and bless his people. It was the Great Presence, which makes a Catholic Church different from every other place in the world; which makes it, as no other place can be - holy."

STAY WITH US ON OUR JOURNEY

27th Sunday P146

MASS 6/ Creed 11;

Eucharistic Prayer 3(28)

October Month of world mission

Faithfulness, faith and trust: These most invisible and difficult things are what God asks of us just as we, in our own way, ask them of those who love us. Trust me, we say, all will be well. And if someone does trust us, the reward is simply that trust was well-placed. We have done our duty. Sometimes when we talk about faith we put the emphasis on believe and accept. Today's readings (especially the passage from Habakkuk) invite us to think in terms of trust. The request of the Apostles is interesting: Increase our faith□ could also mean Make it easier for us or Prove that you are who you say you are. Jesus replies that he can't do that you can't make someone trust you. It has to be a gift, freely given.

This week we pray for the people of the parish of St. Alban, Blackburn, for Canon Jude Harrison, their parish priest, Fr. Paul Taylor, OMI, and the Franciscan Missionary Sisters of St. Joseph. We pray for the parish primary schools and for St. Mary's College.

Pope Francis tweet: God waits for us: He doesn't get tired, He doesn't lose heart. Because it is each one of us who is that child embraced again, that coin found again, that sheep caressed and put back on His shoulders (Luke 15:1-32).

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS for October: Evangelisation: That the breath of the Holy Spirit engender a new missionary "Spring" in the Church.

Hope in the Future Meeting to discuss the next stage for our parish is THIS Wednesday 9th October at 7pm in the Parish Hall. All warmly invited to discuss and to give updates on what is happening in our Deanery.
