30th Sunday P155

MASS 6/ Creed 11;

Eucharistic Prayer 3(28)

October Special Month of world mission

A few weeks ago (22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time) we had a Gospel about humility in social life □ today we hear the Lord reiterating the message, but this time in reference to our prayer lives. The two Gospels are linked by the last words today, which also appear in the other story: □Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.□ This phrase is obviously a key part of our Lord's teaching! The sin of □self-exaltation□ consists in putting others in a lower place □ as the Pharisee does to the tax collector. Perhaps the most telling phrase in today's Gospel is where Jesus refers to the Pharisee saying □this prayer to himself, rather than offering it to God! And since the Pharisee wasn't talking to God, how could he expect to be heard?

Let us pray for the people of the parish of Christ the Redeemer, Deane and Great Lever, for Fr. Morrough O'Brien, their parish priest, and for the parish primary schools. We pray for the Sisters of the Cross and Passion

Pope Francis Tweet: "During this missionary month, the Lord is also calling you: He is asking you to be a gift wherever you are, just as you are, with everyone around you. Courage! The Lord expects great things from you!"

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS for October: Evangelisation: That the breath of the Holy Spirit engender a new missionary "Spring" in the Church.

November will soon be upon us and many of you like to remember your deceased loved ones. Please find envelopes for your list of names and donations at the back of the Church. Each day in November, Mass is said for these intentions.
