STAY WITH US ON OUR JOURNEY

32nd Sunday MASS 7/ Creed 12; Mass p 160: Eucharistic Prayer 3 (p27)

It is fortuitous that this passage of the Gospel is normally read near to the beginning of November, when we have celebrated the feasts of All Saints and All Souls, since it is a strong proclamation of the reality of life after death and the resurrection of the body. This Sunday is not without its difficulties, however, since this message is framed in two very sensitive passages: we have a story of cruelty and martyrdom in the first reading, and a controversial (and possibly upsetting) question about marriage in the Gospel. Remember that the example that the Sadducees bring is ridiculous, legalistic and completely misses the point: Jesus' reply does not mean that we are not with our loved ones after death - quite the contrary, he proclaims that we will all become one with God and each other as children of God.

Remembrance Sunday is next week can I remind you that we are going to be joined by members of the Royal British Legion who will be parading here from their HQ, for our 10 am Mass. It is a great honour for the Parish to be chosen for this event, and some of our School Children will be helping us with the Liturgy on this poignant day. Please do make sure to get you poppies from the back of the Church.

Some of our children will be presented for the Sacraments this morning, as part of that we will sing this hymn, which they like for the offertory of the Mass, please join in.

Chorus: Gather together, gather together, gather together and celebrate

Gather together, gather together, gather together and celebrate

1. Share with each other Share with each other: Share with each other and celebrate
Share with each other, Share with each other, Share with each other and celebrate

2. Sing with each other Sing with each other, Sing with each other and celebrate
Sing with each other Sing with each other, Sing with each other and celebrate

3. Pray with each other Pray with each other Pray with each other and celebrate
Pray with each other, Pray with each other, Pray with each other and celebrate

Pope Francis Tweet: With faith we visit the graves of our loved ones, where we can also pray for those who no one remembers.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS (November)

Universal: Countries receiving Refugees: That the countries which take a great number of displaced persons and refugees may find support for their efforts which show solidarity.

Evangelization: Collaboration of priests and laity: That within parishes, priests and lay people may collaborate in service to the community without giving in to the temptation of discouragement.
