who hate us. Yet family life is filled with opportunities to act generously and to love without measure. This is what we parents try to do every day. This is what we ask our children to learn. We are reminded that when we love generously and gratuitously, we love as God loves us. This is the meaning of mercy.

We pray for the parishes of St. Patrick, Rochdale, and St. Mary, Littleborough, with Fr. Lasia, and for the parish of St. Edmund and St. Patrick, Bolton with Fr. Haworth. We pray for their parish primary schools and for the chaplaincies to the University of Bolton, to Buckley Hall Prison, and to Bolton Hospice.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS for February: Universal: For a generous welcome of the victims of human trafficking, of enforced prostitution and of violence.

Pope Francis Tweet: In the darkest moments of our history, the Lord draws near, opens paths, lifts up discouraged faith, anoints wounded hope, and awakens sleeping charity.

It is easy to choose to be with others when they are acting politely and respectfully. But children do not always act this way, especially with other family members. We can probably all recall a family meal in which such behaviour was not observed. Yet we probably chose to sit through the meal anyway. We regularly give our children second chances—and often third and fourth chances—hoping that our generosity will be rewarded. That is how God acts with us. The ethic that Jesus describes seems like an impossible task: to give when asked and to do good to those

"Dear God, You generously blessed your servant, St. Pio of Pietrelcina, with the gifts of the Spirit. You marked his body with the five wounds of Christ Crucified, as a powerful witness to the saving Passion and Death of Your Son. Endowed with the gift of discernment, St. Pio laboured endlessly in the confessional for the salvation of souls. With reverence and intense devotion in the celebration of Mass, he invited countless men and women to a greater union with Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. Through the intercession of St. Pio of Pietrelcina, I confidently beseech you to grant me the grace of (here state your petition). Amen. Glory be to the Father... (Three times)."
