Eucharistic Prayer 3(27)

June: Month of the Sacred Heart

STAY WITH US ON OUR JOURNEY

Most of the time, this Feast will go unnoticed by the majority of Catholics. It is only those who attend daily Mass who normally encounter it! But the fact that it displaces a Sunday this year tells us of its importance. We only celebrate three birthdays in the Liturgical Year: Jesus (Christmas Day), Mary (September 8) and John the Baptist. This should tell us something! John is known in the Eastern Church as the “Prodromos”, the “One who runs in front”. All his life – even his time in the womb – is making the path clear for Christ. He runs before the Lord, clearing his way, so that the Promised One may come to his people. Today we celebrate that, even at his birth, John the Baptist opened human hearts to the mysteries of God, and the promise of God's presence with his people.

We celebrate the Holy Day of Obligation of SS Peter and Paul this Friday; do make every effort to celebrate this great day.

Let us Pray

O God, Whose right hand raised up blessed Peter, when he walked upon the water and began to sink, and three times delivered his fellow-Apostle Paul from the depths of the sea, when he suffered shipwreck: graciously hear us and grant, by the merits of them both, that we also may attain everlasting glory: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen

Pope Francis Tweet: Choosing to follow Christ helps build a more just, more friendly, more humane society, that is closer to the heart of God.
