Ss Peter & Paul Sunday MASS 7/ Creed 11; Sunday P.170 Eucharistic Prayer 3 (p27)

It is first communion day today, so let's please keep our youngsters in our prayers and their families. Can you remember your first Holy Communion day? What was it like? Who was in your class? How did you celebrate? Can you remember what presents you were given? What did you wear? Who were your teachers that helped prepare you? Have you still got your photographs? Can you find your certificate? I mention these things not to be nostalgic or what once was but to remind you that when you were young someone opened the door to you, so that you could feel at home with Jesus and know you will be always welcome to sit down and to eat with him. It is truly amazing that all these years on here we are and every time we receive Holy Communion it's like that first time all over again! That is why not only do we need to prepare well but we also need to celebrate such a wonderful gift in our lives. Use the questions above as a measure of how innocent we once were, and how much we need the mercy and compassion of God to keep us going until he draws us to himself.

It is St Peter and St Paul's day today: a good day to particularly pray for Pope Francis and Bishop Terence. What those two great Saints gave us all those years ago is generously given for our generation by our lovely Bishop and our incredible Pope.

Finally it is armed forces day today; let's remember them all and keep them in our prayers: Heavenly Father, we commend to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women in our Armed Forces at home and abroad. Defend them day by day with your heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; and give them courage to face the perils that beset them; and help them to know that nothing can separate them from your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. If you have family members serving at present if you have served in the forces in the past; thank you for your service. mjk

Pope Francis Tweet: In the face of life's difficulties, let us ask the Lord for the strength to remain joyful witnesses to our faith. 2014 Year of Our Parish
