STAY WITH US ON OUR JOURNEY

13th Sunday

MASS 7/ Creed 12;

Eucharistic Prayer2(18) page 96

The Gospel and First Reading this Sunday can be summed up in one word: 'hospitality'. But not hospitality in general - this is a very specific hospitality: welcoming the word of God. We must welcome the message of salvation into our homes and hearts, and show this by welcoming the messenger who brings us this good news. Perhaps when we consider the messages we allow into our homes nowadays this theme reveals its relevance to us: television, radio and newspapers are all welcome in our homes. Surely the Gospel tells us to keep our eyes peeled for the "holy man" who brings real news. This Gospel also tells us about our mission: if we are welcomed or rejected, we should neither be proud nor worry for ourselves, but for Christ, because it is Christ who is welcomed or rejected.

We've had a bad few weeks, first the DVD was stolen from the Parish Hall, then the internet camera from the Church, and on Thursday last the CD player was stolen! We think it is the same person involved, and in the next few days we should be able to confirm our suspicions by play back on the Security cameras. The person concerned obviously has some needs, but stealing is not the answer, and especially when you think that our sick and housebound are robbed of following Mass, and we are having to make special provision to play music at Thursday's funeral! If any of you are regulars in our "locals," please keep your ears open for someone attempting to sell our property. We won't be defeated, chins up.

Next Sunday Fr Jan Klaver of Mill Hill and the little Red Boxes, is coming to say thank you to us all for our support over the years and to report how funds are used. There won't be a collection, but the opportunity to join our little red box team, now led in succession to Ged Allcock and before that by her Dad, by Bernadette Moorhouse.

Pope Francis Tweet: To defend human life, above all when it is wounded by illness, is a duty of love that God entrusts to all.
