OL of Mount Carmel MASS 7/ Creed 12; Eucharistic Prayer3(18) page 102

Mount Carmel in the land of Israel has been a symbol of beauty and majesty throughout the ages. Long revered as holy, it became a place set apart for prayer and contemplation by early hermits and prophets, who came to see Mount Carmel as a true symbol of Mary, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. During the time of the Crusades in the Medieval Church, the Carmelite Order was formed from the rich prophetic and mystical traditions of Mount Carmel, under the patronage of Mary as Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Mary appeared to Saint Simon Stock and Englishman, one of the early leaders of the Carmelite Order, promising her protection to all who would devoutly wear the Brown Scapular of Mount Carmel.

It's wonderful to celebrate today's Feast and to link our Prayers with the whole Diocese. Forty years today I was ordained at Salford Cathedral, I had hoped to have a Family Celebration and special Mass today, but it was not to be, perhaps in a few months' time we could have a little celebration. Next Saturday Gavin Landers and Mark Paver will be ordained at the Cathedral, and Fr John will be going along so please note Mass next Saturday is at 9-30am. Its always good to celebrate new ordinations and celebrate the fact that this year 8 candidates have offered themselves for training! You see persevering in Prayer can bring you gifts when you least expect them. Keep praying! I hope that by the time you are reading this I will be beginning the road to recovery after this week's surgery. Thanks for all the lovely cards and words of encouragement and promises of Prayer, you are very kind. I am looking at the whole prospect as the opportunity to close one chapter of life ready to begin a new one; I hope one we will be able to continue to write together. A period of convalescence will follow, which will probably drive me mad! We are very blessed to have Fr. John with us, and he will be well up to the mark with your prayers, help and support. See you soon, God Bless: Our Lady of Mount Carmel pray for us. mjk
