HOLY WEEK AT HOME GOOD FRIDAY: Evening Prayer

INTRODUCTION

O God, come to our aid. O Lord, make haste to help us. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

HYMN

The royal banners forward go, The Cross shines forth in radiant glow: Where he, the Life, did death endure. And yet by death did life procure.

His feet and hands outstretching there, He willed the piercing nails to bear, For us and our redemption's sake A victim of himself to make.

There whilst he hung, his sacred side By soldier's spear was opened wide, To cleanse us in the precious flood Of water mingled with his blood.

Fulfilled is now what David told In true prophetic song of old, To all the nations, 'Lo,' said he, 'Our God is reigning from the tree.'

Blest Three in One, our praise we sing To thee from whom all graces spring: As by the cross thou dost restore, So rule and guide us evermore.

FIRST PSALM

Psalm 115 (116B)

Look, all you peoples, and see my grief.

I trústed, éven when I sáid: * 'I am sórely afflícted.' and whén I sáid in my alárm: * 'No mán can be trústed.'

How cán I repáy the Lórd * for his goodness to mé? The cúp of salvátion I will ráise; * I will cáll on the Lórd's name.

My vóws to the Lórd I will fulfíl* befóre all his péople. O précious in the éyes of the Lórd * is the déath of his fáithful.

Your sérvant, Lord, your sérvant am Í; * you have lóosened my bónds. A thánksgiving sácrifice I máke; * I will cáll on the Lórd's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil* befóre all his péople, in the courts of the house of the Lord, * in your mídst, O Jerúsalem.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now. and ever shall be. world without end. Amen.

Look, all you peoples, and see my grief.

SECOND PSALM

Psalm 142 (143) My spirit fails; my heart is numb within me.

Lórd, lísten to my práyer: † túrn vour éar to my appéal. * You are fáithful, you are júst; give ánswer. Do not cáll your sérvant to júdgement * for nó one is júst in your síght.

The énemy pursúes my sóul; * he has crúshed my lífe to the gróund; he has máde me dwéll in dárkness* like the déad, lóng forgótten.

Thérefore my spírit fáils; * my héart is númb withín me. I remémber the dáys that are pást: * I pónder áll your wórks.

I múse on what your hánd has wróught † and to you I stretch out my hands. * Like a párched land my sóul thirsts for yóu. Lórd, make háste and ánswer; * for my spírit fáils withín me.

Dó not híde your fáce * lest I becóme like thóse in the gráve. In the mórning let me knów your lóve * for I pút my trúst in yóu.

Make me knów the wáy I should wálk: * to yóu I líft up my sóul. Réscue me, Lórd, from my énemies; * I have fléd to you for réfuge.

Téach me to dó your wíll * for yóu, O Lórd, are my Gód. Let your good spírit guide me * in ways that are level and smooth.

For your náme's sake, Lórd, save my lífe; * in your jústice save my sóul from distréss.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

My spirit fails; my heart is numb within me.

CANTICLE

Philippians 2

After Jesus had taken the vinegar he said, 'It is accomplished'; and bowing his head he gave up his spirit.

Though he was in the form of God, * Jesus did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped.

He emptied himself, † taking the form of a servant, * being born in the likeness of men.

And being found in human form, † he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, * even death on a cross.

Therefore God has highly exalted him * and bestowed on him the name which is above every name,

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, * in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

And every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, * to the glory of God the Father.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

After Jesus had taken the vinegar he said, 'It is accomplished'; and bowing his head he gave up his spirit.

SHORT READING

1 Peter 2

Christ suffered for you and left an example for you to follow the way he took. He had not done anything wrong, and there had been no perjury in his mouth. He was insulted and did not retaliate with insults; when he was tortured he made no threats but he put his trust in the righteous judge. He was bearing our faults in his own body on the cross, so that we might die to our faults and live for holiness; through his wounds you have been healed.

SHORT RESPONSORY

Christ humbled himself for us and, in obedience, accepted death, even death on a cross.

CANTICLE

Magnificat

When we were still God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son.

My soul glórifies the Lórd, * my spirit rejóices in Gód, my Sáviour. He looks on his sérvant in her lówliness; * henceforth all áges will cáll me bléssed.

The Almíghty works márvels for me. * Hóly his náme! His mércy is from age to áge, * on thóse who féar him.

He púts forth his árm in stréngth * and scátters the proud-héarted. He casts the míghty from their thrónes * and ráises the lówly.

He fills the stárving with good thíngs, * sends the rích away émpty. He protects Ísrael, his sérvant, * remémbering his mércy, the mercy prómised to our fáthers, * to Ábraham and his sóns for éver. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

When we were still God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Be mindful, Lord, of this your family, for whose sake our Lord Jesus Christ, when betrayed, did not hesitate to yield himself into his enemies' hands and undergo the agony of the cross. Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord bless us, and keep us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.
